Mr. Brevard Carihfield
Secretary of the Governors' Conference
1313 East 60th Street,
Chicago, Illinois

Dear Mr. Carihfield:

I enclose a copy of a self-explanatory letter which I have just sent to Governor Collins in reply to his kind letter of July 22.

As I indicated to you by telephone, I expect to move over to the hotel where the Conference is being held on Monday to be available there at such time as you may be able to schedule my briefing. I regret that I must be in Washington on Wednesday, August 5, and have arranged accommodations to leave San Juan at 5:00 p.m., on the evening of August 4.

Looking forward to seeing you in San Juan.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

My dear friend:

For many years I have not had the pleasure of talking with you; because a matter of importance has arisen recently I wish to know if you could see me, at your convenience, either when you next come to New York or at your Washington office.

Over thirty five years have gone by since we first met at the Long Island home of your unforgettable uncle Mr. Robert Lansing; about some fifteen since you were

I remember well our acquaintance in the old days during the time of my legal work with your Government and later in [redacted] and elsewhere.

I have no plans to come to New York in the near future but if I should do so, I will let you know. In the meantime, I am here in Washington and could arrange to see you almost any time. I suggest that you might give me a telephone call [redacted] [redacted] at your convenience and we could arrange a time when we could get together.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
